February 2013

Sample pre-cast concrete checklist

CLIENT: SITE ADDRESS: PROJECT: Element No. Length Height Thick. Weight Time & Date Cast to parnel to pa	Date						To be completed and significant of the Manufacturer's off at the Manufacturer's premises, by the Senior premises, by the Senior production Supervisor/
Confirmation that all lifting, bracing and fixing inserts of the panels/elements listed above are correct size, in correct location and fully comply with their approved shop drawings, AS 3850, National Code of Practice for Precast, Till-Up and Concrete Elements in Building Construction (National COP), and the Victorian Industry Standard for Precast and Till-Up Concrete for Buildings (The VIS); All cast-in lifting and bracing inserts are clearly marked with the manufacturers' name/symbol and all relevant information in accordance with AS 3850, the National COP and the VIS; All precast concrete panels/elements listed above are a minimum of 72 hours old prior to transportation to site; All relevant information relating to all cast-in components has been provided to the Builder A copy of this Certificate and the manufacturers' technical information about each element (including details of cast in components, rigging formation and erection sequence) must be supplied to the erection crew by the builders' Erection Design Engineer (EDE) prior to panels and/or elements being unloaded on site. In the panels/elements as listed above, have been manufactured according to their approved shop drawings and are fully consistent with AS 3850, the National COP) and the Victorian Industry Standard for Precast and Til-up Concrete for Buildings', the National COP) and the relevant State Transport /Road Authority.	CLIENT:						off at the semi- premises, by the Semi- premises, by the Semi- production Supervisor/ Production (or higher), prior
Confirmation that all lifting, bracing and fixing inserts of the panels/elements listed above are correct size, in correct location and fully comply with their approved shop drawings, AS 3850, National Code of Practice for Precast, Tilt-Up and Concrete Elements in Building Construction (National COP), and the Victorian Industry Standard for Precast and Tilt-Up Concrete for Buildings (The VIS); All cast-in lifting and bracing inserts are clearly marked with the manufacturers' name/symbol and all relevant information in accordance with AS 3850, the National COP and the VIS; All cast-in lifting inserts have been installed with component reinforcement (eg. tension bar & shear bar) consistent with the National COP, the VIS and the component manufacturers' recommendations; All precast concrete panels/elements listed above are a minimum of 72 hours old prior to transportation to site; All relevant information relating to all cast-in components has been provided to the Builder A copy of this Certificate and the manufacturers' technical information about each element (including letails of cast in components, rigging formation and erection sequence) must be supplied to the erection rever by the builders' Erection Design Engineer (EDE) prior to panels and/or elements being unloaded on itte.	SITE ADDRESS :						Production higher), pro
Confirmation that all lifting, bracing and fixing inserts of the panels/elements listed above are correct size, in correct location and fully comply with their approved shop drawings, AS 3850, National Code of Practice for Precast, Tilt-Up and Concrete Elements in Building Construction (National COP), and the Victorian Industry Standard for Precast and Tilt-Up Concrete for Buildings (The VIS); All cast-in lifting and bracing inserts are clearly marked with the manufacturers' name/symbol and all relevant information in accordance with AS 3850, the National COP and the VIS; All cast-in lifting inserts have been installed with component reinforcement (eg. tension bar & shear bar) consistent with the National COP, the VIS and the component manufacturers' recommendations; All precast concrete panels/elements listed above are a minimum of 72 hours old prior to transportation to site; All relevant information relating to all cast-in components has been provided to the Builder Copy of this Certificate and the manufacturers' technical information about each element (including letails of cast in components, rigging formation and erection sequence) must be supplied to the erection rew by the builders' Erection Design Engineer (EDE) prior to panels and/or elements being unloaded on ite.	PROJECT:						Manager (or transportation)
 Confirmation that all lifting, bracing and fixing inserts of the panels/elements listed above are correct size, in correct location and fully comply with their approved shop drawings, AS 3850, National Code of Practice for Precast, Tilt-Up and Concrete Elements in Building Construction (National COP), and the Victorian Industry Standard for Precast and Tilt-Up Concrete for Buildings (The VIS); All cast-in lifting and bracing inserts are clearly marked with the manufacturers' name/symbol and all relevant information in accordance with AS 3850, the National COP and the VIS; All cast-in lifting inserts have been installed with component reinforcement (eg. tension bar & shear bar) consistent with the National COP, the VIS and the component manufacturers' recommendations; All precast concrete panels/elements listed above are a minimum of 72 hours old prior to transportation to site; All relevant information relating to all cast-in components has been provided to the Builder A copy of this Certificate and the manufacturers' technical information about each element (including letails of cast in components, rigging formation and erection sequence) must be supplied to the erection rew by the builders' Erection Design Engineer (EDE) prior to panels and/or elements being unloaded on ite. holding the position of		T			1		to panel trailer
size, in correct location and fully comply with their approved shop drawings, AS 3850, National Code of Practice for Precast, Tilt-Up and Concrete Elements in Building Construction (National COP), and the Victorian Industry Standard for Precast and Tilt-Up Concrete for Buildings (The VIS); • All cast-in lifting and bracing inserts are clearly marked with the manufacturers' name/symbol and all relevant information in accordance with AS 3850, the National COP and the VIS; • All cast-in lifting inserts have been installed with component reinforcement (eg. tension bar & shear bar) consistent with the National COP, the VIS and the component manufacturers' recommendations; • All precast concrete panels/elements listed above are a minimum of 72 hours old prior to transportation to site; • All relevant information relating to all cast-in components has been provided to the Builder • Copy of this Certificate and the manufacturers' technical information about each element (including letails of cast in components, rigging formation and erection sequence) must be supplied to the erection rew by the builders' Erection Design Engineer (EDE) prior to panels and/or elements being unloaded on ite. — holding the position of. — holdings and further, that they are to be transported as per S3850, the Victorian Industry Standard for Precast and Tilt-up Concrete for Buildings and further, that they are to be transported as per S3850, the Victorian Industry Standard for Precast and Tilt-up Concrete for Buildings', the National COP) and the relevant State ransport /Road Authority.	Element No.	Length	Height	Thick.	Weight	Time & Date Cast
size, in correct location and fully comply with their approved shop drawings, AS 3850, National Code of Practice for Precast, Tilt-Up and Concrete Elements in Building Construction (National COP), and the Victorian Industry Standard for Precast and Tilt-Up Concrete for Buildings (The VIS); • All cast-in lifting and bracing inserts are clearly marked with the manufacturers' name/symbol and all relevant information in accordance with AS 3850, the National COP and the VIS; • All cast-in lifting inserts have been installed with component reinforcement (eg. tension bar & shear bar) consistent with the National COP, the VIS and the component manufacturers' recommendations; • All precast concrete panels/elements listed above are a minimum of 72 hours old prior to transportation to site; • All relevant information relating to all cast-in components has been provided to the Builder • copy of this Certificate and the manufacturers' technical information about each element (including etails of cast in components, rigging formation and erection sequence) must be supplied to the erection rew by the builders' Erection Design Engineer (EDE) prior to panels and/or elements being unloaded on technifirm that all of the panels/elements as listed above, have been manufactured according to their approved shop drawings and are fully onsistent with AS.3850, the National Code of Practice for Precast, Tilt-up and Concrete Elements in Building Construction (National OP) and the Victorian Industry Standard for Precast and Tilt-up Concrete for Buildings', the National COP) and the relevant State ransport /Road Authority.
size, in correct location and fully comply with their approved shop drawings, AS 3850, National Code of Practice for Precast, Tilt-Up and Concrete Elements in Building Construction (National COP), and the Victorian Industry Standard for Precast and Tilt-Up Concrete for Buildings (The VIS); • All cast-in lifting and bracing inserts are clearly marked with the manufacturers' name/symbol and all relevant information in accordance with AS 3850, the National COP and the VIS; • All cast-in lifting inserts have been installed with component reinforcement (eg. tension bar & shear bar) consistent with the National COP, the VIS and the component manufacturers' recommendations; • All precast concrete panels/elements listed above are a minimum of 72 hours old prior to transportation to site; • All relevant information relating to all cast-in components has been provided to the Builder accopy of this Certificate and the manufacturers' technical information about each element (including etails of cast in components, rigging formation and erection sequence) must be supplied to the erection rew by the builders' Erection Design Engineer (EDE) prior to panels and/or elements being unloaded on ite. ———————————————————————————————————
size, in correct location and fully comply with their approved shop drawings, AS 3850, National Code of Practice for Precast, Tilt-Up and Concrete Elements in Building Construction (National COP), and the Victorian Industry Standard for Precast and Tilt-Up Concrete for Buildings (The VIS); • All cast-in lifting and bracing inserts are clearly marked with the manufacturers' name/symbol and all relevant information in accordance with AS 3850, the National COP and the VIS; • All cast-in lifting inserts have been installed with component reinforcement (eg. tension bar & shear bar) consistent with the National COP, the VIS and the component manufacturers' recommendations; • All precast concrete panels/elements listed above are a minimum of 72 hours old prior to transportation to site; • All relevant information relating to all cast-in components has been provided to the Builder copy of this Certificate and the manufacturers' technical information about each element (including etails of cast in components, rigging formation and erection sequence) must be supplied to the erection rew by the builders' Erection Design Engineer (EDE) prior to panels and/or elements being unloaded on ite. holding the position of size, in correct location and fully comply with their approved shop drawings, AS 3850, National Code of Practice for Precast, Tilt-Up and Concrete Elements in Building Construction (National COP), and the Victorian Industry Standard for Precast and Tilt-Up Concrete for Buildings (The VIS); • All cast-in lifting and bracing inserts are clearly marked with the manufacturers' name/symbol and all relevant information in accordance with AS 3850, the National COP and the VIS; • All cast-in lifting inserts have been installed with component reinforcement (eg. tension bar & shear bar) consistent with the National COP, the VIS and the component manufacturers' recommendations; • All precast concrete panels/elements listed above are a minimum of 72 hours old prior to transportation to site; • All relevant information relating to all cast-in components has been provided to the Builder • copy of this Certificate and the manufacturers' technical information about each element (including etails of cast in components, rigging formation and erection sequence) must be supplied to the erection rew by the builders' Erection Design Engineer (EDE) prior to panels and/or elements being unloaded on technifirm that all of the panels/elements as listed above, have been manufactured according to their approved shop drawings and are fully onsistent with AS.3850, the National Code of Practice for Precast, Tilt-up and Concrete Elements in Building Construction (National OP) and the Victorian Industry Standard for Precast and Tilt-up Concrete for Buildings', the National COP) and the relevant State ransport /Road Authority.
size, in correct location and fully comply with their approved shop drawings, AS 3850, National Code of Practice for Precast, Tilt-Up and Concrete Elements in Building Construction (National COP), and the Victorian Industry Standard for Precast and Tilt-Up Concrete for Buildings (The VIS); • All cast-in lifting and bracing inserts are clearly marked with the manufacturers' name/symbol and all relevant information in accordance with AS 3850, the National COP and the VIS; • All cast-in lifting inserts have been installed with component reinforcement (eg. tension bar & shear bar) consistent with the National COP, the VIS and the component manufacturers' recommendations; • All precast concrete panels/elements listed above are a minimum of 72 hours old prior to transportation to site; • All relevant information relating to all cast-in components has been provided to the Builder copy of this Certificate and the manufacturers' technical information about each element (including etails of cast in components, rigging formation and erection sequence) must be supplied to the erection rew by the builders' Erection Design Engineer (EDE) prior to panels and/or elements being unloaded on ite. holding the position of size, in correct location and fully comply with their approved shop drawings, AS 3850, National Code of Practice for Precast, Tilt-Up and Concrete Elements in Building Construction (National COP), and the Victorian Industry Standard for Precast and Tilt-Up Concrete for Buildings (The VIS); • All cast-in lifting and bracing inserts are clearly marked with the manufacturers' name/symbol and all relevant information in accordance with AS 3850, the National COP and the VIS; • All cast-in lifting inserts have been installed with component reinforcement (eg. tension bar & shear bar) consistent with the National COP, the VIS and the component manufacturers' recommendations; • All precast concrete panels/elements listed above are a minimum of 72 hours old prior to transportation to site; • All relevant information relating to all cast-in components has been provided to the Builder copy of this Certificate and the manufacturers' technical information about each element (including etails of cast in components, rigging formation and erection sequence) must be supplied to the erection rew by the builders' Erection Design Engineer (EDE) prior to panels and/or elements being unloaded on the components are subjected above, have been manufactured according to their approved shop drawings and are fully insistent with AS.3850, the National Code of Practice for Precast, Tilt-up and Concrete Elements in Building Construction (National DP) and the Victorian Industry Standard for Precast and Tilt-up Concrete for Buildings and further, that they are to be transported as per 83850, the Victorian Industry Standard for Precast and Tilt-up Concrete for Buildings', the National COP) and the relevant State ansport /Road Authority.
A copy of this Certificate and the manufacturers' technical information about each element (including details of cast in components, rigging formation and erection sequence) must be supplied to the erection rerew by the builders' Erection Design Engineer (EDE) prior to panels and/or elements being unloaded on eite.	relevant iAll cast-i consistenAll preca transports	information n lifting ins t with the N st concrete ation to site	in accord serts have National C panels/ele	lance with been inst COP, the V ements lis	n AS 3850 alled with /IS and the ted above	the National COP and component reinforceme e component manufactu are a minimum of 72 ho	the VIS; ent (eg. tension bar & shear bar) purers' recommendations; ours old prior to GNATURE: DATE:	etails of cast in rew by the buildite. onfirm that all of the onsistent with AS. 33 OP) and the Victoria S3850, the Victoria	e panels/eleme 850, the Natio an Industry Sta	nts, riggin tion Designments as listed and Code of tandard for	g format gn Engine , he I above, hav Practice fo Precast and	olding the pore been many r Precast, Ti	prior to panels and/or panels and/or panels and/or panels and/or panels and/or panels and further panels and further panels and further panels and further panels and	t be supplied to the erection r elements being unloaded on pproved shop drawings and are fully in Building Construction (National or, that they are to be transported as per
MUNATURE: DATE:	UCNATURE						DATE
	IGNATURE:

The CFMEU OH&S Unit gratefully acknowledge the support of Incolink.

SAFETY IS UNION BUSINESS

www.cfmeuvic.com.au

